

I think that the ruling to allow using the F-word on public television is an incorrect decision. I do not want my children to hear any swearing, no matter how it is used. Using the word, F--- or any other swear word does not represent good grammar nor allow for greater expression.

Please reconsider your decision on this matter and keep the public television network clean.

Sincerely,

Ramona Johnson